

I don't think it is in the public interest to use
non-cable stations
to air one sided
political agendas.
If we are to be forced to watch
political programming, be honest about whose side you are on and
be sure to give both
political parties
equal time.

I do not have cable
or satellite
television, my only
options are "public airway" stations. I want to be informed...not by
one political side or the other. I want to hear both sides in order to come to an educated decision. Isn't this by law what Sinclair is supposed
to do?

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
